

Sunshine Coast Hospital

Commissioned by Queensland Health in late 2007, Tract developed the landscape and urban design masterplan and project definition plan for the Sunshine Coast Hospital.

Focusing upon external connectivity and highly contextual design outcomes, the masterplan and project definition plan intuitively informs and stewards the further development of this landmark project.

The project achieves community aspirations through its ongoing evolution under the public-private partnership process.